I.N.S.P.E.C.T.

Ideas
- Having to do with acquiring knowledge and understanding, and developing philosophies and attitudes.

Natural/geographic
- Having to do with the physical environment in which people live and interact.

Social
- Having to do with interactions among people; including such issues as gender, economic status, and ethnicity.

Political
- Having to do with acquiring and organizing power and the functions of government: making, enforcing, and interpreting laws.

Economic
- Having to do with the production, development, distribution, and management of material wealth; including countries, households, and businesses.

Cultural
- Having to do with the arts and manners, cultural events, shared knowledge, and values of a society.

Technological/scientific
- Having to do with applying practical information and/or scientific knowledge to solve problems and improve standards of living.